REF: A. OCOA-11389, 6 January 1967 B. OCOW-5825, 17 May 1966 1. The translation of the speech referred to in reference A, and forwarded as an attachment, was compared with a translation of the copy of the speech obtained from an AERODYNAMIC source and was found to be similar enough to assume that the Ukrainian text was the same in both instances. We hesitate to jump to the conclusion that, therefore, KOLASKA actually has in his possession a genuine copy of the speech delivered by DZYUBA in Kiev. 2. You will recall our comments made in reference B to the effect that AECASSOWARY/2 had decided against surfacing the text of the speech, for the time being at least, because he suspected his source had obtained the copy of the speech from the KGB and that it was not a genuine copy. AECASSOWARY/2's source has since made copies of the speech available to at least one other individual in the United States. 3. As mentioned in paragraph j. of reference B, it was suspected that KOLASKA was in some way involved, innocently or wittingly, in the compromise of Soviet Ukrainian writers arrested in the summer of 1965. Although Ivan DZYUBA was arrested, unlike some of the others who were arrested and deported to force labor camps, he was spared imprisonment, reportedly because of his extremely bad health at the time. DZYUBA continues to be persecuted, and we do not rule out the possibility that the publication of his speech in the West would supply the authorities with the added ammunition they may be seeking to send him to prison. It is known that in the summer of 1965 DZYUBA addressed to the Central Committee of the CPU, and to the Chairman of the Council of Ministers of the UkSSR, a 239-page bitter attack against Soviet policy in the Ukraine. His memorandum, in which he requested
